

Privacy collection statement

McCullough Robertson lawyers and our related organisations (we, us or our) may collect, use and disclose personal information about you. We collect personal information directly from you and may also collect personal information passively through our website.

We collect your personal information for the purposes of administering the tender process for commercial development in the Whitsundays, considering responses and applications as part of the tender process, providing services and information to you or someone else you know, facilitating our internal business operations, complying with any legal or regulatory requirements and giving you other information that may be of interest to you. If the personal information you provide is incomplete or inaccurate, we may not be able to provide you with the services you seek.

We may disclose personal information about you to third parties involved in the commercial development and tender process including Knight Frank and the Whitsunday Regional Council, our related entities, affiliated organisations, service providers and other agencies who assist us in providing services and operating our business. These providers may be based overseas or use overseas infrastructure to perform services for us, including in the USA, South Africa and India.

Our Privacy Policy (available on our website or on request) sets out how you can access and ask for correction of your personal information, how you can complain about privacy -related matters and how we respond to complaints.
